

LP3

Leading with Power, Presence, & Purpose

Isn't it time to learn to lead through the mountains of change facing us all?

A 2-day Workshop For Business Professionals
Who Lead Teams, Projects or Departments

2008 Dates:
April 2-3
June 18-19
October 15-16

Our Focus

Our focus is to equip leaders with skills that work. We assist each individual to find their unique way to apply new leadership skills daily.

Our Approach

We have discovered that a small group setting allows for deep learning, personal instruction and space to work on real life issues. Our approach includes powerful demonstrations, engaging interaction, large and small group activities and individual tools. In addition, each participant will receive a workbook of leadership materials that will serve as a day-to-day resource back in the office.

You will learn to

- Strengthen your leadership power, presence and purpose
- Communicate with greater truth and penetration
- Resolve current interpersonal issues
- Integrate new leadership skills
- Develop an impactful presence
- Work purposefully with different types of people
- Lead people to action

About Go Green Learning

Meet Your Trainers

I have worked with leaders, individuals and teams for over 20 years. My deepest desire is to assist each one to find the power of their heart and to connect that to great leadership. I focus on assisting individuals to be productive under pressure, and to enjoy the process.

Gail Green

My work and my life are intricately woven together. From 15 years of training, I know that this work transforms people in a practical way that makes courageous leadership the only way to work and live.
